NOTE: I've had so many requests for the lyrics to the song we sang in church this past Sunday (08.29.10) I've decided to simply post them. For those not familiar with our church, over a year ago our pastor used an illustration in a sermon about a purple cow. Not long afterward we were given a life-size purple cow statue. Her name is "Bless" and she ends up in different areas of the church each week. I share that only because I refer to it in the song. The song is nothing more than a fun "welcome song." Don't ask me how I came up with it. No explanation. It just happened. Came up with the lyrics in about 10 minutes. Here you go.... Nick

Young man, there's no need to feel down (I said)
Young man, if you're new in this town ('cause we)
Love you, we have a big purple cow (and we)
Want - you - to - know - that....

Jesus, is the reason we sing (I said)
Jesus, is our Savior & King (and He)
Loves you - He died for you and for me (and we)
Want - you - to - know - that....

(We want to welcome you to) B - H - B - C!
(We want to welcome you to) B - H - B - C!
You will find lots of love, sent from heaven above
Give your neighbor a great big hug....

(We want to welcome you to) B - H - B - C!
(We want to welcome you to) B - H - B - C!
God can set yourself free; cause He did that for me,
Way back at Calvary....

Young man, don't forget what you've heard (I said)
Young man, it's all in God's Word (the)
Bible, is His love note to you (and we)
Want - you - to - know - that...

CHORUS
